

A nighttime photograph of a city skyline, likely Seoul, with numerous illuminated buildings and the N Seoul Tower visible in the background. A network of white lines and dots is overlaid on the image, connecting various points across the frame.

KGCCI

INNOVATION AWARDS 2016

TO ENCOURAGE INNOVATION
MAKE IT A COMPETITION

KGCCI strives to promote innovative companies and announces the opening of applications for the 2016 KGCCI Innovation Awards

If your company is located in Korea, you may apply for one of three Award Categories:

- Innovation in Business (organization, distribution, marketing & sales, entrepreneurship, market development, services)
- Innovation in Green Technologies (environment, resources efficiency etc.)
- Innovation in Workforce Development (activities, sustainability, inclusiveness, personal development etc.)

Earning the KGCCI Innovation Awards will provide you with benefits such as:

- Public recognition and media attention through announcement of winners to German and Korean public
- Award winners will receive award at festive Awards Ceremony on September 30, 2016 in Seoul which will be promoted publicly and include guests from business and politics
- Outstanding opportunity to benefit from our wide network and make your innovation known in Germany and Korea
- Exposure on the official KGCCI Innovation Awards website, KGCCI publications and communications
- Opportunity to display your product sample at other KGCCI events throughout the year

In order to participate, please apply through our Innovation Awards website at www.innovation-award.kr

*Applications including supporting materials will be accepted until August 15, 2016.